Possible Local Authority Assistance through Holiday Grants

Some local authorities can offer a small grant towards holiday costs for people with disabilities through social services. This is not uniform throughout the UK but it is worth contacting your local office to see if your area provides this, you might need to ask them to enquire about it as not all social workers are aware it exists.

Please note that some of the organisations included on our fact sheet of ‘accommodation and care provided’ are also applicable for children and young people.
