Provides supported holidays for adults with learning difficulties, typically of 5 nights, in luxury accommodation at their home near Polperro, in South East Cornwall.

The holidays can be tailored to suit individual needs, but there are dozens of visitor attractions in the area, ranging from beaches, train trips, boat trips, theme parks, shopping trips and gardens, including the Eden Project. For the more energetic there is the possibility of horse riding, cycling, walking and canoeing, and for those who want to learn new skills, they offer cookery and gardening schools, as well as opportunities for arts and crafts.
